

HOSTING AN INTERDENOMINATIONAL EVENT

Prework: Please answer the following question to the best of your ability before joining the call.
(It will all make sense once you join us!)

Imagine yourself taking a multi-leg journey, sometimes through rough terrain, to finally arrive at your final wonderful and exotic destination. Along the way you will travel by car, plane, train, bus, boat and dune buggy.

After traveling for several days, you find yourself famished and exhausted as you approach the hotel that will be your home for the next two nights.

What are your hopes as you enter the hotel? Be specific. Include those things you hope will be there (or done for you) and those things you hope will not be there (or done to you).

Call Notes: To be completed during the conference call.
